

LUIS MORENO

Strategy and Human Rights Outreach Director
Youth Human Rights Program

Luis Moreno is a fourth year Political Science student at the University of Toronto St. George Campus. Luis and his mother immigrated to Canada from Mexico in 2006 and since then Luis has been involved in different community non-profit organizations. In 2008 Luis was awarded with the "Thomas Foster good Citizen Award".

During his time in high school, Luis completed 998 volunteer hours, received multiple awards including the: Jarvis Collegiate Alumni Award; the Multicultural Club Leadership Award; the Harvey Cooper Memorial; and the JCI's Optimus Award. Luis' passion for politics began when he was elected Student Council President where he was responsible to promote school spirit, raise awareness for various social and community issues, and participated in various fundraising events.

Luis' passion for Canadian politics led him to volunteer in Rocco Rossi's Campaign for Mayor in 2010. Since then Luis has volunteered in many municipal, provincial, and federal campaigns. Most recently, Luis was the Youth Co-coordinator in the Jane Farrow campaign for city councillor in Ward 30, Toronto-Danforth and was an active volunteer in the Sarah Thomson council campaign for Ward 20, Trinity-Spadina. Luis' commitment to defend and promote human rights has encouraged him to be part of CHRIO. As a Strategy and Human Rights Outreach Director, Luis will be responsible to raise awareness of CHRIO's mission in Toronto.
