

BIOGRAPHY: GULNAR GILL ADVOCATE

Gulnar Gill was born to a well-educated family of Lahore Pakistan. Her mother was a highly educated lady who held the post of the Principal of the Government Girls High School, Islampura Shahdara Lahore. She also remained the President of Persian Society of Pakistan. Gulnar's father was a reputed government officer and held the post of Superintendent in the Punjab Secretariat, Lahore.

Gulnar's mother's strict discipline helped her children to remain devoted to their education and her deep love for others developed the feelings of care, concern and fraternity for humanity.

After completing her early education from Cathedral High School No.2 Lahore Gulnar did her graduation from Islamia College for Women Lahore. Later she earned her MBA (Finance) from NCBA&E Lahore. She has a brilliant academic record which clearly shows her affection towards her studies.

Since her childhood, she always dreamt to be a lawyer therefore she did her LLB from Lahore Law College and successfully turned her dream into reality.

Her practice as a lawyer soon earned for her name, fame and repute. She now, is a reputed and prominent Christian Lawyer who is respected and honored nationally and internationally.

She had a deep concern for the, marginalized, helpless and suffering humanity. Her interest in providing the justice to every single defenseless, depressed, and, dejected human being kept growing passionately with the passage of time.

Her childhood vision remained rooted deeply in her personality and in perusal of her vision she provided her services to humankind through justice, in a country where anarchy and unrest prevail so openhandedly. Her commitment and dedication to the firm and organization project her vision and mission showing her active potential as a young lawyer. She has been working for the rights and democracy, and she always try to promote human rights among individual. Her struggle for the provision of justice and equal rights to the religious minorities of Pakistan is highly admirable.

She is a young, intellectual and a passionate Lawyer to learn all the technicalities of legal system. She is dealing different areas of law especially civil matters, Criminal cases, & Immigration and corporate laws. She is fully dedicated lawyer and give whole her heart and soul to her profession.

She has enough abilities to tackle any kind of situation that may arise during the course of matters pending in the court or otherwise. She has self-confidence, dedication, willingness to walk the extra mile to achieve excellence, clear goals, and high level of motivation. In addition, she has gained the required skills for dealing with different people of various cultures and background.

Since 2004 she is working actively as a defender of human rights. She has been very vocal on the issues related to the human rights and the injustices faced by the marginalized classes of the society. She is seen as a great support to the voiceless people of this country. It is pertinent to mention that and she fought several cases with reference to human rights issues and won them.

Gulnar also proved her to be an effective and reliable leader, speaking to numerous conferences, seminars and workshops clearly tells her grip on her subject and ability to convince others.

Gulnar is always seen standing first in the demonstrations, rallies and public meetings for human rights issues. She on the one hand through this activity highlights the issues and creates awareness and on the other urges the power structures to be conscious of their responsibilities.

She has very positive political views and has an excellent political understanding and wisdom which always benefits who look for her advice.

Presently she is attributing at Canadian Human Rights International Organization (CHRIO), as Founder & Executive Director of MISSION PAKISTAN, Staff Attorney and International Legal researcher at CHRIO. In addition, she is owner at GILLS' LAW ASSOCIATES and National Director at Fellowship of Pakistani American Christians, Chief Editor Pakistan at FPAC TV.

Though she has always been there, wherever the injustice and violence against the women or poor religious minorities or marginalized people occur but two examples from the recent past are mentioned here which shows her courage, concern and tireless efforts for the uplift and the rights of the people. In her capacity at the Canadian Human Rights International Organization, she helped the homeless, wounded and depressed Christian community of the Joseph Colony, Badami Baugh, Lahore, Pakistan and worked ceaselessly for their restoration. She also challenged the administration to pay attention to the poor Christian community and work for the rehabilitation of the homeless poor people and restoration of the human rights.

At the All saints Church, Peshawar, Pakistan, incident too, she was among the first ones to raise the voice and help the bereaved families. She also boldly challenged the administration to open eyes and make necessary arrangements for the protection and security of the innocent religious minorities.

Gulnar Gill is also educating people politically and democratically through her writings. Her articles are thought provoking, challenging and convincing. Since her heart throbs for human rights, equality, justice, tolerance, and peace therefore her articles and papers challenge and help human rights workers, lawyers, professionals, and general public as well to work for the promotion of social justice and equal opportunities to all.

It is interesting to note that Gulnar Gill has a special interest in fine arts. She is a wonderful and skilled artist who plays with the colors and produce beautiful portraits, sketches and pictures. Not only this, but she also writes Urdu Poetry which is happily read and appreciated in literary circles. She is also fond of music and likes to listen soft, light and melodious songs. Her favorite sports are Polo and Basket Ball.

Gulnar has a very humble heart, kind nature and attractive and a very loving personality. She is also a wonderful mother of a beautiful daughter Saher Angeline and it is obvious that her heart beats with the smiles of her daughter. She says her religion is humanity but she believes in Jesus Christ.